October hostesses: Nan Groll, Mary Hutchison, Winnie Krajnek, Gretchen Scheidt

From the President's Desk

Hi fellow quilting friends,

September is often a time for beginnings and recommitment. If you haven't been able to come to A Patch of the Lakeshore Quilters meetings recently, we'd surely love to see you there. I'm beginning my term as the new president. Some of the other officers are new too, so I hope you will find a slightly different atmosphere even when we follow the same outline for speakers or other program, Show & Tell, snacks, and business meeting. We are getting ready to go to press for the committee, hostess and member booklet, so if you have changed any of your contact information, please let me know ASAP. We have a full year planned of meetings, Camp Quilt, sew days and other fabric-filled events.

It's always more fun with friends, so please consider inviting your other quilting friends or past members to come along with you, and take the time to become friends with some of our amazing new members. I'm always sew ready to listen to new ideas, so please do not hesitate to contact me.

I LOVE to quilt, and am happy to share my favorite hobby with all of you!

It's Mystery Time Again!

Clue # 1 Cutting

Grab your stash bins and dig out a wide variety of scraps.

Cut the following squares and rectangles for your chosen size.

Fabric / Size	Table Topper	Lap Quilt	Twin	Full	Queen	King
Scrappy 4 inch squares	44	100	120	150	210	280
Background 4 inch squares	44	100	120	150	210	280
Background 3 ½ inch squares	16	40	48	60	84	112
Background 3 ½ x 6 ½ inch rectangles	20	40	48	60	84	112

The wider variety of scrappy prints, the better it will look. I recommend at least a dozen different prints, and the more the better. This is not a busy design, and would be great in two colors like blue and white, or red and cream. There is a great deal of background, and the design did best with white or cream.

Approximate Fabric Requirements Chart

Fabric / Size	Table Topper	Lap Quilt	Twin	Full	Queen	King
Fat Eighths	9	15	18	20	38	43
Background yardage	1 yd	2 ¼ yd	3 ⅛ yd	3 ¼ yd	4 ⅜ yd	5 ⅛ yd
Border A yardage	¼ yd	½ yd	½ yd	⅜ yd	¾ yd	¾ yd
Border B yardage	½ yd	½ yd	¾ yd	⅞ yd	1 yd	1 yd

Happenings from the Guild Picnic

30 years since the founding of A Patch of the Lakeshore Quilters is a big milestone! The August 10 picnic at Ascend Services was a celebration of that achievement. As people arrived, we had fun trying to label faces in an old photograph. When all were present, several games gave us the opportunity to get to know new and familiar names and faces and to learn what sort of quilting or fiber arts interested each member. The picnic itself was a summery broasted chicken dinner — even watermelon and red checked tablecloths — ending with cake for all.

Following the meal, new officers were introduced and outgoing officers were given Chamber Bucks in appreciation of their service. Sign up sheets were made available for the upcoming county fair & quilt raffle, wool appliqué workshop (9/16), and Camp Quilt (9/22-24).

President Ellen Lewellen asked all members to be responsible for submitting change of address or contact information. She also read the proposed hostess schedule and committee assignments so that members could switch or make changes before the yearly membership booklets are printed. The evening concluded with many beautiful Show & Tell quilts shown by members.

In commemoration of 30 years, a surprise gift was given to each person in attendance. Other Guild members can pick up their gift at the next meeting.

Save the Date for upcoming Guild Events!

Barn Quilts of Shawano County, Thursday, October 5th from 8:30am-6pm. Cost is $20-$30 depending on the number of people attending and whether we need to rent a passenger van. There are currently over 350 barn quilts. The tour will include the following stops in addition to the barn quilts: Bolt and Skein Quilt Shop, Shawano; and a stop for lunch and possibly dinner.

Sew for Fun! Saturday, November 11th at Ascend Services from 8am-4pm. The cost for the day is $10 per person. Lunch is on your own. Dessert will be provided. We will be meeting in the brick building by Ascend Services.

Please contact Julie Klumpp 920-860-0485 or Ann Hall 920-374-8457 with any questions.

Manitowoc County Fair - Quilt Block Contest

The Woman's Day Event at the Manitowoc County Fair on August 26th provided a fun day of local speakers; prize drawings (including gift certificates to local quilt shops); quilt block contest winners announced and the raffle of the 2022 fair quilt.

The quilt block contest is a collaboration between the Manitowoc County Fair Board and A Patch of Lakeshore Quilters. This working relationship provides us an opportunity to promote the guild and display all of the charitable organizations in the community that we support. It is free advertising for the guild and a way to provide information to quilters who are not currently a member.

This year ticket sale proceeds were $507 and costs $168. Thank you to everyone who helped sell tickets at the County Fair.

The winner of the 2022 Fair Quilt is Bonnie Wagner

Ten blocks were submitted for the 2023 Block Contest and the winners are:

1st Barb Palzewicz

2nd Ann Zeman

3rd Ellen Buck

Honorable Mention – Donna Theis

Viewer Choice – Ann Zeman
