March Minutes

Meeting March 9th , 2023

- Meeting called to order 6:45 by Vice President Julie Klumpp
- Pledge of Allegiance
- Program was discussions about the upcoming quilt show. Planned to make hearts for props and to place around the city, but the weather was bad so canceled until a later date.
- Show and Tell
- Things needed for the quilt show. 10 Ft Ladders, bars, and soups. Contact Mary Hutchison for Thursday and Friday food.
- Patty discussed the quilt show timeline. No amendments to the timeline were presented.
- Nan Groll discussed information about quilt show for 2025. Will be cheaper as we will use our exempt status for a discount. We will also not have to pay taxes. The EXPO has frozen our rate so we will not see an increase in 2025. Motion to reserve the EXPO was made by Kay Olker, second by Pat Smith.
- Historical Society requested assistance in the village with demonstration of Tied quilt. Sue DuPont and her sisters volunteered.
- Registrations were extended to March 23 rd ..
- Minutes approved Kay Olker, second Sue DuPont
- Treasures report approved by Karen Hoffman, second Tammy Ricks. This was for both Jan and February.
- Julie Klumpp discussed Camp Quilt. General Store in Norman is giving a 20% discount.
- Ann Zeman discussed the mystery quilt.
- Ann Hall discussed the Quilt Walk
- Charity Sew day will be May 21 & 22
- Margaret Greicar is in hospice. As of this publication Margaret has passed away.
- Motion to adjourn Sue Marquardt, second Patty Angoli.

Respectfully Submitted

Nannette Groll, Secretary

💕💕💕 Hello quilters! The Quilt Show is almost here! Please read carefully through the following information so we are all on the same page. 💕💕💕

Quilt Show - Gift Boutique

Just a few last minute reminders for those members selling their homemade items in the Gift Boutique:

If you can display your items in a container, i.e., basket, bowl, decorative box – please do so, making sure your name is on the bottom of the container.

An inventory list* and sample price tag was published in the January newsletter. Please use this uniform inventory list, as it will be much easier to keep an accurate record of all the sales.

If any member is also donating an identical item or something similar to the charity booth, please let that committee know the price you put on the item, so that the Gift Boutique and the Charity Booth are not competing with each other.

You, or the person dropping off your items, will be asked to sign a disclaimer.

The drop-off times are as follows:

Thurs, April 13th - Noon to 6:30 PM or Friday, April 14th - 9:00 AM to Noon

If you have any questions, please contact us.

*Also available on the website, in the Members Only area, is a document with the Gift Boutique Inventory List and general info about prepping your items for sale.

Donations for Charity Raffle Baskets

Naomi here. I forgot to contact Linda prior to publication to see if items are still needed, but if you have items to donate {ie fat quarters and new notions} please contact Linda Londo to make arrangements.
