August Picnic Information

What: Picnic and free swap exchange.

When: August 12, 5 PM for the swap and 6 PM for the picnic

Where: Cabin #1 at Lincoln Park in Manitowoc

How does it work?

For the swap: Bring any fabric, notions, patterns, quilt-related items or household decor you think someone else might want and you'd like to declutter. You spread all your stuff out on a table, then go "shopping" at other tables. When we are finished, any of your stuff that's left is your responsibility to pack up and take home. The price for everything is free.

For the dinner: The committee is providing a broasted chicken picnic and bottled water. If you want a different beverage you'll need to BYOB.

What else do I need to bring? Besides your swap items, please bring a large bag to carry the treasures you find, a folding table if you have one, a fat quarter (or more) of red, white or blue fabric (optional). This will be put in bundles to later make patriotic quilts to donate. Don't forget your name tag!

Anything else? Yes, PLEASE! You need to RSVP by August 1 so the committee can order food. RSVP info on page 5.

IMPORTANT! If we don't know you are coming, someone's gonna be hungry....

September Speaker: Diane Murtha

My Grandmother helped me with my first hand sewn and tied quilt as a young girl, but I didn't take my first quilting class until the late 90's. From that moment on, I was hooked. I snatched any quilting time I could get, but a demanding career left minimal time for my quilting hobby, although I was very active in both my Heidelberg, Germany and Northern Virginia quilt guilds over the years.

Like many of you, I started with mostly traditional quilting. Gradually I modified patterns more and more, making my quilts unique, as well as creating my own original designs. Over the last 8 years I gravitated to art quilts, specifically participating in art quilt challenges. An early retirement allowed me time to open my creative aperture to explore quilting on even more new levels!

Challenges are an excellent opportunity to get out of your comfort zone. I embrace it fully and encourage you to do the same and experience the joy and personal satisfaction of challenges!

So why do you want to listen to me? Because I am you! My point is – if I can do challenge quilts – so can you! I'm not fancy. I only recently started entering juried competitions. However, I'm super excited to share what I have learned with you. I regularly spoke at international conferences across the country in my professional life so speaking about my quilting passion is an easy and natural transition

Accept the Challenge & Win a Prize

An informative and humorous perspective on my quilt challenge experiences, including a trunk and slide show. I'll discuss what I've learned from the various challenges, other ways to challenge yourself and sources of inspiration. And most importantly how challenges can expand your quilting skills and inspire all of your quilting!

Manitowoc County Fair - Women's Day, August 28

Discussion was held at a previous meeting regarding the guild's involvement in the County Fair's Women's Day Event. One item involved making a quilt using this year's submitted quilt blocks to be raffled off at next year's event. Joan Behnke looked into the raffle license and we are able to do 365 raffles a year.

Block info available on website. (Blocks need to be submitted by Aug. 4th)
